GENERAL INFORMATION

- Fee — Refer to RE 206 or DRE Web site for current fees. Additional information on reverse side.
- Please read all information before completing this application. Type or print in ink.
- This is an original examination application and should be submitted only if you have examination eligibility (see reverse).
- You may only be scheduled for one salesperson examination date at a time.
- The name you use on your examination application must be your legal name.
- Please use a personal mailing address (item #2); use of a real estate school/business mailing address may cause a delay in mail delivery.
- Applicant mailing lists —The lists of examinee names and addresses are provided, upon request, to institutions who wish to offer educational opportunities. Your name and address will be provided unless you responded “no” to item #11.

the mail, examination dates fill quickly and a particular date may not be available and therefore, requests cannot be guaranteed.

- If you want the earliest possible date, indicate more than one choice on line #9 and attach a separate page stating specific dates. Include your daytime phone.
- If you do not provide a date on line #10, you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- Exam date notification — Processing timeframes are listed on our Web site at www.dre.ca.gov/proc_time.htm. We encourage you to check these timeframes to more accurately estimate when the processing of your application should be completed.
- If you have not received an examination confirmation notice within the timeframes listed on our Web site, you can obtain your scheduled date through the Web site www.dre.ca.gov.
- If you have not yet been assigned an exam date or received a deficiency letter and your application was submitted prior to the processing timeframes, check with your bank or credit card company to assure that DRE has processed your fee before contacting our Sacramento office.
- Applicants with physical limitations requiring special accommodation must submit a written request which describes the limitation and the special accommodation requested. Compliance with special requests may be limited by scheduling constraints.

- Use www.dre.ca.gov (eLicensing) to reschedule an examination, review your examination results and records, request a duplicate schedule or result notice, and change your examination mailing address.
- If you are simultaneously making application for both the salesperson and broker examinations, you must submit a separate package (application, qualifying documentation and fee) for each examination to be scheduled. Fees are not transferable from one exam to another and will not be refunded.
- Exam fee valid for two years — Missing requirements may be submitted anytime within the two year period after DRE receipt of your application/fee. A new application, fee, and current qualifications will be required if you fail to qualify and pass the examination during that two year period.

CURRENTLY OR PREVIOUSLY LICENSED?

- If you currently have a real estate salesperson license in California, or if your license expired less than two years ago, you are not eligible to take a salesperson examination. You may obtain a new license through the renewal process.
- If you were issued an 18-month conditional salesperson license within the last four years, that is currently suspended under Section 10153.4 Business and Professions (B&P) Code, you are not eligible to take the salesperson examination. However, if four years have elapsed from the issuance date of the suspended license, you are eligible to take a new salesperson examination.

EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to this application and fee, salesperson applicants must submit a transcript or credit certificate showing proof of completion of a three semester or four quarter unit college-level course in Real Estate Principles or an equivalent DRE approved course. Alternatively, applicants may be scheduled for this examination by certifying under penalty of perjury that they are currently enrolled in an acceptable Real Estate Principles course. Proof of completion of the course must be submitted before the original license can be issued.

All salesperson license applicants are required to submit evidence (official transcripts) of completion of a college-level course in Real Estate Practice and one additional course in specified areas either before or within 18 months of the issuance of their original license (B&P Code Section 10153.4(a)). The additional course may be selected from the following: Accounting, Business Law, Common Interest Developments, Computer Applications in Real Estate, Escrows, Legal Aspects of Real Estate, Mortgage Loan Brokering & Lending, Property Management, Real Estate Appraisal, Real General powers of the Commissioner, Section 10050, 10071 and 10075 of the Business and Professions Code authorizes the maintenance of this information.

A social security number must be included to enable the fingerprints to be processed.

The Real Estate Law and the Regulations of the Commissioner require applicants to provide the Department with specific information. If all or any part of the required Estate Economics, Real Estate Finance, Real Estate Office Administration.

The three semester-unit or four quarter-unit courses must be completed through a regionally accredited college or university or an approved DRE private course sponsor. Course(s) completed through a foreign institution of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by DRE.

Applicants who do not submit proof of successfully completing the two additional courses either before or at the time they submit their original license application will be issued an 18-month conditional license. If this education requirement is not met within the 18-month period, your license will be automatically suspended.

Refer to Instructions To License Applicants handbook for further information and examination rules. The handbook is available on the DRE Web site or from any DRE office.

FINGERPRINT INFORMATION

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is required from every real estate license applicant unless fingerprints are already on file with DRE. Applicants have the option of getting their fingerprints taken after they have submitted their examination application or after passing their examination. Fingerprints must be submitted through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) Live Scan Program. A Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) will be sent with your scheduling notice; RE 237 is also available from the DRE Web site. Out of state residents either need to make arrangements to get their fingerprints taken at a live scan service provider in California or get fingerprinted out of state using the FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card (FD-258 Rev. 5/99), provided upon passing the examination. Out of state examination applicants may request a blank fingerprint card by contacting the Licensing Section at (916) 227-0931. Fingerprint processing fees are not refunded if an applicant fails to pass the examination.
